Dear Dr. Greenspan: Ralph

We are delighted you were able to participate in the Philip Morris External Research Focus Workshop held last month. Your high level of expertise and competence greatly contributed to the success of the Workshop and is very much appreciated.

An initial draft of the research focus has been developed from the information amassed at the workshop. I would like you to review the enclosed draft and provide me with your comments by May 8th. Please do not hesitate to call me at the phone number noted below if you would like to discuss your comments with me.

In addition, enclosed is a check to reimburse you for your travel expenses. I plan to mail your honorarium next month.

Once again, thank you for enthusiastic willingness to serve as a participant in this important workshop.

Sincerely,

Max Eisenberg, Ph.D.
